DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 17, 18, 20-22, 24, 25, 28-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Shyr et al. USP 5,743,375.

See the previously attached marked up cover sheet and figure 2 of Shyr et al. depicting the claimed features.

3. Claims 17-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Japan Abstract 01-254477.

See the attached marked up drawing figure sheet (with figures 1 and 2) of Japan Abstract 01-254477 depicting the claimed features.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 19 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Shyr et al. USP 5,743,375.

Shyr et al. teach the claimed invention except for having the conveyor integrated into the floor and using a hydraulic means to lift his chain conveyor. In both instances, it would have been an obvious matter of design choice as to what type of known lifting device is used or on what type of surface the device is placed based on the exact design parameters of the specific invention. Such design parameters would depend on the space available for the device, the weight of the articles and the power required to raise the chains are examples of these considerations which do carry any patentable weight.
